

Internet Measurement Awareness Workshop, Ghana - Agenda

Date: 8 December 2025

Time: 09:00 – 14:00 (UTC)

Venue: AAU Offices,

Accra.

Program Outline

09:00 – 09:10

Welcome Remarks & Introduction of Organisations

Delivered by: Maud A. Ashong Elliot- President, Internet Society (ISOC) Ghana Chapter
– Brief overview of ISOC Ghana, ICANN, AFRINIC, Internet Society and RIPE NCC.

09:10 – 09:30

Introduction to Internet Measurement

Presenter: Yazid Akanho (ICANN)

09:30 – 11:00

Measurement Tools and Use Cases – Presentations by Organisations

Afrinic

Presenter: Mr Brice Abba

Internet Society

Presenter: Mr Jean-Baptiste Millogo

11:00 – 11:30

Coffee Break

11:30 – 12:15

RIPE Atlas Platform: Live Demonstration & Hands-On Training

Presenter: Mr Stephen Suess - RIPE NCC Trainer

12:15 – 13:30

Panel Discussion

Theme: “Internet Measurement in Ghana: Local Case Studies and Perspectives”

Panelists

1. MTN Ghana – Mr Isaac Sakyi
Network Performance / QoS Engineer

2. GARNET – Mr Emmanuel Togo
Network Measurement & Research Specialist
3. National Communications Authority (NCA) – Mr Fazel Atta-Opoku
Quality of Service / Regulatory Officer
4. Media Foundation for West Africa (MFWA) – Ms Vivian Affoah
Digital Rights & Internet Governance Lead
5. PAIX Data Centres Ghana – Mr Silas Peprah
Interconnection & Peering Specialist

Discussion Topics:

- Current Internet measurement practices in Ghana
- Regional disparities, outages, congestion patterns
- Routing, DNS performance, and traffic localisation
- Data-sharing challenges and opportunities
- Pathways for a sustainable local measurement community

13:30 – 14:00

Closing Discussion

Theme: “Fostering a Local Internet Measurement Community: What’s Next?”

Lead: ISOC Ghana