

GLOBAL ENCRYPTION DAY GHANA 2026

Theme: Encryption for Everyday Safety: Protecting Phones, Messages, Money, and Personal Data

DATE 23 Sept - 18 Nov 2026 Main clinic: 21 October 2026	FORMAT Half-day public encryption clinic Talks, demos, help desks and pledge	TARGET Students, SMEs, traders, parents, journalists, public servants and community members	OUTCOME Participants leave with safer phones, accounts, messages and personal data
--	---	--	---

Time	Session	Participant Benefit	Lead / Facilitator
9:00 - 9:30 AM	Registration and Digital Safety Check-In	Register and complete a quick checklist on phone security, passwords, WhatsApp safety, mobile money habits and two-factor authentication.	Registration Team
9:30 - 9:45 AM	Welcome and Opening	Introduction to Global Encryption Day and overview of the purpose of the public Encryption Clinic.	Organising Team / ISOC Ghana Representative
9:45 - 10:05 AM	Opening Remarks	Short remarks on why encryption matters for trust, privacy, digital safety and everyday online life in Ghana.	Host Institution / Partner Representative
10:05 - 10:35 AM	Encryption Made Simple	Practical explanation of encryption using phones, WhatsApp, mobile money, banking apps, email and cloud storage.	Cybersecurity Facilitator
10:35 - 11:15 AM	Live Phone Security Walkthrough	Step-by-step demonstration on phone lock, SIM PIN, app permissions, updates, backups and device security settings.	Technical Facilitator
11:15 - 11:30 AM	Short Break	Refreshment and networking break.	Logistics Team
11:30 AM - 12:30 PM	Hands-On Encryption Help Desks	Practical help desks on encrypted messaging, password managers, 2FA, email safety, secure file sharing and cloud backup.	Technical Volunteers
12:30 - 1:00 PM	Mobile Money and Scam Protection	PIN safety, OTP fraud, fake links, phishing, fake payment alerts, social engineering and account takeover risks.	Fintech / Mobile Money Resource Person
1:00 - 1:25 PM	Protecting Personal Data	Mini-clinic on protecting ID cards, photos, academic records, business documents, family information and customer data.	Data Protection Resource Person
1:25 - 1:45 PM	Community Encryption Pledge	Participants commit to teaching at least five people how to protect their phones, messages, accounts and personal data.	Organising Team
1:45 - 2:05 PM	Feedback and Evaluation	Short post-clinic survey to measure learning, practical actions taken and follow-up needs.	Monitoring and Evaluation Team
2:05 - 2:30 PM	Closing, Certificates and Group Photos	Closing appreciation, certificate presentation and group photographs.	Organising Team
2:30 PM onward	Refreshments and Networking	Informal engagement with facilitators, volunteers, partners and participants.	Organising Team

Website note: Replace role titles with confirmed names once partners and speakers are finalised. Keep only the event-day programme on the public website; keep internal planning, procurement and reporting timelines in the project workplan.